

Instruction to authors,

Sportekspert is the publication that publishes original articles related to the area of applied physical education and sport.

Papers should be written MS WORD text editor, font Arial, 10. paper should not exceed 12 pages with 1.5 spacing. Article title, authors and coauthors, as well as the tables should be written in a same font and spacing 1, 0.

The order of the article content should be following: article title in Bosnian, article title in English, Author names, affiliated institution, abstract in Bosnian, abstract in English, key words in Bosnian, key words in English and article text.

Abstract should be brief (maximum 200 words), and should in short and comprehensive describe the problem.

Key words should have not more than 5 words, characterizing the content of the paper.

Article text should be divided in to the following sections - headline: introduction, discussion, conclusion and references. Illustrations and tables are a part of the text.

Introduction should state the subject, problem and aim of the article.

Tables should be incorporated in to the text. Tables should be numbered consecutively and have short title describing the table content. Tables should be simple and should not repeat the main text data.

Illustrations must have their consecutive number according to the text, must be of high quality , readable and clear for further reproduction.

For the references see:<http://sportekspert.ucoz.com>

Manuscripts not written according to the instructions will be returned to the author for the correction.

Articles can be submitted through the application form at <http://sportekspert.ucoz.com>. Completed application form should be sent to izvrsni.urednik@gmail.com. Authors will be notified on acceptance or refusal of the manuscripts. Manuscripts will be sent for a blind review. If the review suggests a changes or corrections, one copy of the blind review will be send to author for final correction.